Building rules:

- NO UNACCOMPANIED MINORS ALLOWED TO WAIT OR CONGREGATE IN THE DEL PRADO LOBBY. IF A MINOR IS WAITING FOR CLASS TO BEGIN, WAITING FOR A SIBLING, OR WAITING FOR PICKUP, THEY MUST DO SO IN THE DOJANG.
- We must respect our neighbors and always represent our school in a positive way. No rowdy behavior, loud voices or running anywhere in the building.
- To access the building call: 001 from the intercom in the lobby, press 0 to contact front desk, and tell them "Taekwondo school please".

Self-Control: All students must respect each other's personal space. No roughhousing, hitting or kicking. Full contact sparring must be approved by Master Asad. Before and after class students may hold quiet conversations, engage in approved games, stretch, practice techniques, and kick the bag.

Respect: Students must use kind words and be polite at all times. They will support and encourage their classmates. They will bow and address Masters & Instructors as "Sir" or "Ma'am."

Cleanliness:

- Students are responsible for keeping their uniform neat & clean.
- Student's feet and hands must be clean and dry, nails trimmed.
- All students are expected to do their part to keep the dojang clean. This includes throwing away all trash and taking all belongs with them when they leave.

Tardiness: If a student is late he must come to the edge of the mat and ask, "May I come in Sir?" before entering the class.

Classroom rules:

- Remove all jewelry & watches before practice. Pure Woori is not responsible for lost or stolen items.
- Students must ask Master or Instructor permission for bathroom breaks.
- Observers should try to keep noise down to avoid distracting students.
- No shoes, food or drink are allowed on the mats.
- Students must change in the changing rooms or bathroom.
- Students should try and stay quiet throughout the class, try their best, and practice hard. It is not always easy to focus; this is one of the many skills students will learn through their martial arts training.

Outside Training: When weather permits, a portion of class may be held in the park across the street to the north of the dojang. Students will always be accompanied to and from the park by Master Asad and authorized representatives. Students are never to leave the park or designated practice area without an authorized adult, instructor or Master Asad.
